

PROJECTS

Formalized projects will be expected at the Intermediate and Senior Elementary levels on various subjects. Introductory and more simplistic projects and book reports will be expected from Junior Elementary students. Information will be forwarded on formalized projects at least two weeks ahead of due date and basic project expectations posted on the website.

We trust that projects are supported at home and that the final product has the time ownership of the student.